Dear Sir,

It will not be in my power to attend Vestry this evening. Do me the favour to inform the members of Vestry, that I decline a re-election. I must leave my place to be filled by a younger man. I need not say that my disposition to serve the Church has in no degree abated, and that I shall continue to think with pleasure of the harmony that has always existed in the Vestry, since my connexion with it.

Truly yours
